Why SharedWork?

Benefits to employers

• Flexibility to tap into your unemployment insurance account on a weekly basis.
• A more equitable option than layoffs by cutting hours instead of jobs.
• Retain skilled workers and improve morale.
• Explore training programs that develop workforce skills.
• Program credibility (38 years) - 99% would recommend to other owners.
How it works

1. Sign-in to eServices with a Secure Access Washington (SAW) account. If you established a SAW account for WorkSourceWA.com or another state service, you may use that same username and password.

2. The employer calls 800-752-2500 to check business eligibility in 60 seconds or less.

3. The employer assigns a SharedWork representative and partnership begins to submit both the Employer Plan App and Participant List.

4. Once the employer plan is approved, you’re ready! Don’t use it – no cost. Use it – less impact to experience rates.

5. Adjust your workforce - week by week - employees receive earned wages and partial U.I.

Business continues operating – you’re OPEN for business with happy customers.

Ryna’s remodeling company temporarily closed because of COVID-19. Prior to closing, she employed 20 individuals for a standard workweek of 40 hours. In April 2021, they partially reopen by bringing back all 20 individuals at a reduced workweek of 30 hours.

In lieu of layoffs. Ryna has enough work (600 hours) for 15 full-time employees. The employer is able to avert the continued layoff of 5 full-time employees by bringing back all 20 employees for a reduced workweek.

Reduced workweek. The employer reduced the workweek from 40 hours to 30 hours, which is a reduction of 25 percent and permissible under federal law, actually anywhere from 10-50% is acceptable reduction each week with SharedWork.

Summary. The 20 returning employees would each receive 75 percent of their wages from their employer, while also remaining eligible for 25 percent of their respective weekly benefit amounts under SharedWork.

Scenario: Ryna brings employees back with 25% payroll reduction

“Client care has ebbed and flowed based on the pandemic, and Shared Work has given us the flexibility to take care of our staff, while saving payroll when there isn’t enough work – (as a non-profit, this is especially important!)”

Michael LaTour, Associate Director

“I think SharedWork is a great signal to your people: come back to work, get back to work, and here, sign up for SharedWork! It could be a great tool in building up your team and moving forward as you try to figure out the next few years of being short [on] workers, and how to retain the great ones you have.”

Anthony Anton, President and CEO

“Winning with SharedWork

“Our employees are thankful we used it, and happy they do not have to draw full unemployment. There are so many advantages to SharedWork. We do not know what the future will bring. Get approved for SharedWork!”

Erica Baldrige, Director of Human Resources

“To keep our morale up, wanting to do what felt like the right thing for our employees ... was not just to pick five or ten of our newest employees and let them go because of the pandemic ... and so SharedWork saved us!”

Erica Baldrige, Director of Human Resources

What is Rapid Response?

A solution for economic transition and business engagement across the Business lifecycle

Proactive, locally based, business-focused, flexible strategy designed to respond to layoffs and plant closing by quickly coordinating services to provide immediate aid to companies and affected workers at the work site. Rapid Response and local workforce development support communities and play an active role in strong regional economies.

For more information, see DOLETA Rapid Response Services for Workers.
Rapid Response Serves:

Businesses
- Avoid future layoffs.
- Incumbent worker training; upskill-back fill initiatives.
- Education about employment law (Worker Adjustment & Retraining Notification (WARN) requirements, SharedWork, Trade Adjustment Assistance (TAA), etc.) through WorkSource.

Laid Off Workers
- Introduction to unemployment insurance.
- Connection with training opportunities, benefits and income support through WorkSource as well as community and technical college.
- Local Resources for transition.
- Job fairs and hiring events.
- Veteran’s Priority of Service.
- Introduction to Trade Act (if applicable).
The Rapid Response team was phenomenal. Clearly, closing a site is never a fun thing but the best we can do is get the affected employees with all of the resources they need to succeed in their future - whatever path they choose. [The] team answered many questions and more, the team consisted of people who are passionate about getting our soon-to-be-laid-off employees the resources they need and questions answered. [You are all] a pleasure to work with and I will never forget [that you all] did an unwavering job on making the rapid re-employment seminar a success.
