OLYMPIA, Wash. (AP) — Washington is poised to become the first state to establish an employee-paid program creating an insurance benefit to help offset the costs of long-term care, a step advocates say will help an aging population that is likely not prepared for the increasing costs needed for daily assistance.

Why Families Need a New Approach to LTC
A Good Thing for Washington’s Aging Population

- Long-term care needs are growing as Washingtonians age
- Families are less able to meet long-term care needs of loved ones

Source: Washington State Department of Social and Health Services, Research and Data Analysis Division
The cost of long-term care

Long-Term Care is predictable and expensive
• 70% of those turning 65 today will need long-term care
• Annual cost of home care: $33k to $66k (20-40 hours/week)

Most Seniors can’t afford long-term care
• Among Washington seniors:
  • Median household income: $56,000
  • Half have no 401(k) or pension income
How the WA Cares Fund Supports Washington Families

Affordability
• For the first time, long-term care insurance is affordable for all working Washingtonians

Peace of Mind
• We know we will have access to care when we need it later in life, reducing the emotional and financial stress on family relationships

Choice
• We choose who provides our care and where we receive it

Washington is a better place to live, work and retire.
How the benefit works
How the Benefit Works

• Each eligible beneficiary can access services and supports costing up to $36,500.
• The benefit can be used for a range of services and supports, such as:
  - Professional care
  - Rides to the doctor
  - Home-delivered meals
  - Training family caregivers
  - Adaptive equipment and technology
  - Home safety evaluations
Vesting and eligibility

To meet vesting criteria, you must have earned your WA Cares benefit by working and contributing:

- At least ten years at any point in your life without a break of five or more years within those ten years, or
- Three of the last six years
- And at least 500 hours per year during those years, then

To be eligible for benefits, you must require assistance with at least three activities of daily living.
How the Benefit Works

• Every employee contributes $0.58 per $100 of earnings.

• Premiums go into a dedicated Trust Fund that can only be used for this program.

• If you have private long-term care insurance by Nov. 1, 2021, you may apply from Oct. 1, 2021, thru Dec. 31, 2022, to permanently withdraw from the program.
Exemptions
What is an Exemption?

Exemptions are for workers who have their own private long-term care insurance.

Exemptions are permanent. If approved, workers won't have premiums assessed and forfeit their right to the benefit for life.

Workers must apply for an exemption. Employers cannot apply on behalf of their employees.

- Key dates for exemption applications:
  - By Nov. 1, 2021: Have a qualifying private long-term care insurance policy.
  - Oct. 1, 2021–Dec. 31, 2022: Apply to ESD for an exemption.
Employee and Employer Responsibilities

- Employees must provide notification of exemption to all current and future employers.
- The only acceptable notification is a copy of the employee's approved exemption letter from ESD.
- Employers must maintain a copy of the employee's approved exemption letter.
- Employers should not collect premiums from exempt employees who have provided the approved exemption letter.
- Employees are not entitled to a refund of premiums that were assessed before their exemption was approved or before the approved exemption letter was provided to their employer.
WA Cares and Paid Leave
What Employers Need to Know About WA Cares

Employers don’t contribute but will:

- Report and pay premiums to ESD.
  - Definitions of employer, employee and remuneration are consistent with Paid Leave.
  - Definition of wages also applies, excluding the social security tax cap, which does not apply.

Self-employed earners can opt-in.
Employers Report Once for Both Programs

ESD is updating the Paid Leave reporting system to include WA Cares.

- Many similarities between the programs
  - Employee, Employer, Employment, Wages (with exception of the social security cap)
  - Employers deduct premiums, report, and pay these premiums to ESD
  - Self-employed and federally recognized tribes can elect coverage
  - Employees covered by a CBA in existence on or before Oct. 19, 2017, don’t have to participate unless the CBA has been reopened or renegotiated after that date.
  - To the extent possible, investigations for premium compliance will be the same
How WA Cares Differs from Paid Leave

- WA Cares benefits serve a different purpose
- ESD doesn’t administer the benefits portion of WA Cares (DSHS)
- No employer contribution
- Premium amounts
- No Social Security wage cap on premium collection
- Tribes can elect coverage and opt out for any reason the tribe deems necessary
- Self-employed elective coverage has different requirements
  - Must elect coverage between January 1, 2022, and January 1, 2025, or within three years of becoming self-employed for the first time. Elective coverage for self-employed individuals is permanent.
Cross-Agency Responsibilities

DSHS, HCA, State Actuary, ESD
• Administer benefits
• Manage providers
• Apply for demo waivers

• Administer optional registrations & removals
• Collect premiums and wage reports
• Determine qualified individuals

• Process payments
• Track benefit usage
• Coordination of benefits

• Provide actuarial analysis to support Trust Fund solvency
