

Message to employers - July 1, 2022

Our payment addresses are changing. Please update your files and software.

Starting July 1, the Employment Security Department (ESD) will change to U.S. Bank for unemployment insurance taxes and benefits.

As a result of the bank change, ESD's state unemployment insurance payment addresses for employers will also change on July 1. Please make sure you update any processes, forms, files or software with these new addresses:

Note: ICESA and certified mail payments must be shipped via USPS Express Mail. We no longer accept UPS or FedEx.*

Not changing your payment address could result in:

- A late payment penalty and interest.
- Your payment not being delivered.

You might need to notify your bookkeeper, CPA, human resources department or others about this change.

Thank you for your attention to this.
