13. INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY RESOURCES

- 13.1. Contractor is required to conserve and protect state resources for the benefit of the public interest. This requirement is necessary to maintain public trust, conserve public resources and protect the integrity of state information resources and systems.
- 13.2. Contractor may only use ESD-provided state-owned information technology resources with expressed permission from ESD Contract Manager.
- 13.3. If the performance of this Contract requires Contractor to use ESD-provided state-owned information technology resources Contractor may only use such resources to conduct business that is necessary for the performance of this Contract and within the scope of the Contract. Furthermore, Contractor is prohibited from using the resources for any unlawful purpose or any personal use.
- 13.4. Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to create a right of privacy in any content transmitted via ESD's electronic messaging systems. ESD may monitor and log all activity on ESD computing and communication resources, including, but not limited, to internet access. ESD monitoring and logging may be used by ESD for any purpose.
- 13.5. USB, external and internal peripherals, and similar devices connected to agency equipment are subject to all applicable federal laws, state laws, state policies, agency policies, executive orders, and this Contract.

14. INSURANCE

- 14.1. Contractor shall, during the term of this Contract, maintain in full force and effect, the insurance described in this Section. Contractor shall acquire such insurance from an insurance carrier or carriers licensed to conduct business in the State of Washington. In the event of cancellation, non-renewal, revocation, or other termination of any insurance coverage required by this Contract, Contractor shall provide written notice of such to ESD within five business days of Contractor's receipt of such notice. Failure to buy and maintain the required insurance may, at ESD's sole option, result in this Contract's termination.
- 14.2. All insurance provided by Contractor shall be primary as to any other insurance or self-insurance programs afforded to or maintained by the State and shall include a severability of interests (cross-liability) provision.
- 14.3. Upon ESD's request, Contractor shall furnish to ESD copies of certificates of all required insurance within thirty (30) days.

14.4. Minimum Acceptable Limits

The minimum acceptable limits must be as indicated below, with no deductible for each of the following categories:

14.4.1. Commercial General Liability covering the risks of bodily injury (including death), property damage and personal injury, including coverage for contractual liability, with a limit of not less than $1 million per occurrence/$2 million general aggregate.

14.4.2. Professional Liability Errors and Omissions coverage of not less than $10 million per claim; Cyber-security coverage of not less than $1 million per claim/$2 million general aggregate. Contractor shall continue Professional Liability Errors and Omissions coverage and be required, upon request, to provide ESD certificates of insurance for one year beyond the expiration or termination of this of this Contract.

14.4.3. Crime Coverage coverage of not less than $1 million single limit per occurrence, which shall at a minimum cover occurrences falling in the following categories: Computer Fraud; Forgery; Money and Securities; and Employee Dishonesty.

14.5. Industrial Insurance Coverage

14.5.1. Contractor waives its immunity under Title 51 RCW to the extent it is required to indemnify, defend and hold harmless ESD and the State and its agencies, officials, agents or employees from claims by Contractor's employees or agents.

14.5.2. The Contractor must comply with the provisions of Title 51 RCW, Industrial Insurance. If the Contractor fails to provide industrial insurance coverage or fails to pay premiums or penalties on behalf of its employees as may be required by law, Agency may collect from the Contractor the full amount payable to the Industrial Insurance accident fund.

14.5.3. The Agency may:

14.5.3.1. Deduct the amount owed by the Contractor to the accident fund from the amount payable to the Contractor by Agency under this Contract; and 14.5.3.2. Transmit the deducted amount to the Department of Labor and Industries (L&I), Division of Insurance Services.

14.5.4. This provision does not waive any of L&I's right to collect from the Contractor.

14.6. In accordance with the Survival clause, this section, Insurance, shall survive the expiration or termination of this Contract.

15. PRICE WARRANT

15.1. If Contractor reduces its prices for any of the software or services provided by the staff listed in Exhibit A, Statement of Work or their approved replacement to additional clients during the term of this Contract, ESD shall have the immediate benefit of such lower prices for new purchases. Contractor shall send notice to the ESD Contract Manager with the reduced prices within fifteen (15) business days of the reduction taking effect.

15.2. Prices shall not be increased during the term of the Contract.

16. TERMINATION, SUSPENSION, AND REMEDIES

16.1. Termination or Suspension for Cause

16.1.1. In the event ESD determines the Contractor has failed to comply with the conditions of this Contract in a timely manner, ESD has the right to suspend or terminate this Contract. ESD may terminate immediately or, at its sole discretion, ESD may notify the Contractor in writing of the need to take corrective action, prior to termination, and allow the Contractor time to cure. In the event of termination or suspension, the Contractor shall be liable for damages as authorized by law including, but not limited to, any cost difference between the original Contract and the replacement or the costs to cover Contract and all administrative costs directly related to the replacement Contract, e.g., cost of the competitive bidding, mailing, advertising, and staff time.

16.1.2. ESD reserves the right to suspend all or part of this Contract, withhold further payments, or prohibit the Contractor from incurring additional obligations of funds during investigation of the alleged compliance breach and pending corrective action by the Contractor or a decision by ESD to terminate this Contract.

16.1.3. A termination shall be deemed to be a "Termination for Convenience" if the investigation determines that the Contractor: (1) was not in default; or (2) failure to perform was outside of his or her control, fault or negligence. The rights and remedies of ESD provided in this Contract are not exclusive and are in addition to any other rights and remedies provided by law.

16.1.4. ESD reserves the right to immediately suspend all, or part of, this Contract, and to withhold further payments, or to prohibit the Contractor from incurring additional obligations of funds when it has reason to believe that fraud, abuse, malfeasance, misfeasance or nonfeasance has occurred on the part of the Contractor under this Contract.

16.2. Termination for Funding Reasons

ESD may unilaterally terminate this Contract in the event that funding from federal, state or other sources becomes no longer available to ESD or is not allocated for the purpose of meeting ESD's obligation hereunder. In the event funding is limited in any way, this Contract is subject to re-negotiation under any new funding limitations and conditions. Such action is effective upon receipt of written notification by the Contractor.

16.3. Termination for Convenience

Except as otherwise provided in this Contract, either party may, by ten (10) days' written notice, terminate this Contract, in whole or in part. If this Contract is so terminated, ESD shall be liable only for payment required under the terms of this Contract for services rendered or goods delivered prior to the effective date of termination.

16.4. Suspension for Convenience

Except as otherwise provided in this Contract, ESD may, by ten (10) days' written notice, suspend this Contract, in whole or in part. If this Contract is so suspended, ESD shall be liable only for payment required under the terms of this Contract for services rendered or goods delivered prior to the effective date of suspension. If this Contract is suspended, the Schedule shall be delayed for a period of time equal to the period of such suspension. ESD may, by ten (10) days' written notice, lift the suspension of the Contract, in whole or in part, at which time the Schedule and the parties' right and obligations shall resume to the extent that the suspension is lifted.

16.5. Termination for Withdrawal of Authority

In the event that ESD's authority to perform any of its duties is withdrawn, reduced, or limited in any way after the commencement of this Contract and prior to normal completion, ESD may terminate this Contract by seven (7) calendar days or other appropriate time period by written notice to Contractor. No penalty shall accrue to ESD in the event this Section is exercised. This Section shall not be construed to permit ESD to terminate this Contract in order to acquire similar Services from a third party.

17. TERMINATION PROCEDURE

- 17.1. Upon termination of this Contract, ESD, in addition to any other rights provided in this Contract, may require the Contractor to deliver to ESD any property specifically produced or acquired for the performance of such part of this Contract as has been terminated. The provisions of the TREATMENT OF ASSETS Section will apply in such property transfer.
- 17.2. Transition. In order to ensure business continuity, upon termination or expiration of this Contract, Contractor shall confer and cooperate with ESD in carrying out the activities required for transition in a safe and orderly manner without interruption of Services by Contractor to a replacement Contractor, subsequent operator, or ESD as applicable. Obligations under this provision shall continue for no longer than ninety (90) days and are conditioned upon reasonable, mutually agreed upon compensation for services beyond the date of termination or expiration.
- 17.3. ESD shall pay to the Contractor the agreed upon price, if separately stated, for completed work and services accepted by ESD and the amount agreed upon by the Contractor and ESD for (1) completed work and service(s) for which no separate price is stated; (2) partially completed work and services; (3) other property or services which are accepted by ESD; and (4) the protection and preservation of property, unless the termination is for default, in which case ESD shall determine the extent of liability of ESD. Failure to agree with such determination shall be a dispute within the meaning of DISPUTES Section of this Contract. ESD may withhold from any amounts due to the Contractor such sum as ESD determines to be necessary to protect ESD against potential loss or liability.
- 17.4. The rights and remedies of ESD provided in this section shall not be exclusive and are in addition to any other rights and remedies provided by law or under this Contract.
- 17.5. After receipt of a notice of termination and except as otherwise directed by ESD, the Contractor shall:

- 17.5.1. Stop work under this Contract on the date, and to the extent specified, in the notice;
 - 17.5.2. Place no further orders or subcontracts for materials, services, or facilities except as may be necessary for completion of such portion of work under this Contract as is not terminated;
 - 17.5.3. Settle all outstanding liabilities and all claims arising out of such termination of orders and subcontracts, with the approval or ratification of ESD to the extent ESD may require, which approval or ratification shall be final for all purposes of this clause;
 - 17.5.4. Complete performance of such part of the work as shall not have been terminated by ESD; and
 - 17.5.5. Take such action as may be necessary, or as ESD may direct, for the protection and preservation of the property related to this Contract which is in the possession of the Contractor and in which ESD has or may acquire an interest.
- 17.6. In accordance with the Survival clause, this section, Termination Procedure, shall survive the expiration or termination of this Contract.

18. USE AND DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION

- 18.1. The Contractor shall use any private and confidential information provided under this Contract solely for the purpose for which the information was disclosed. The Contractor shall not misuse any private and confidential information under this Contract. The Contractor shall not disclose any private and confidential information unless the disclosure is authorized by law. The misuse or unauthorized release of private and confidential information shall subject Contractor, its employees or agents to a civil penalty of $5,000 and other applicable sanctions under state and federal law (RCW 50.13.060[13] and 50.13.080[3]).
- 18.2. In accordance with the Survival clause, this section, Use and Disclosure of Information, shall survive the expiration or termination of this Contract.

19. GENERAL TERMS

19.1. RECORDS and AUDITS

19.1.1. Record Retention

Contractor shall retain all books, records, documents and other material which reflect all direct and indirect costs of any nature expended in the performance of this Contract for a period of six years from termination of the Contract. Records shall be retained beyond the above referenced retention periods if litigation or audit is begun prior to the end of the period referenced above, or if a claim is instituted prior to the end of the period referenced above involving the Contract covered by the records. In these instances, the records will be retained until the litigation, claim or audit has been finally resolved.

19.1.2. Access to Records and Facilities / Audits

ESD and its designees shall have full access to and the right to examine and copy any or all books, records, papers, documents and other material regardless of form or type which are pertinent to the performance of this Contract, or reflect all direct and indirect costs of any nature expended in the performance of this Contract. ESD shall have the right to access, examine and inspect any site where any phase of the program is being conducted, controlled or advanced in any way. Such sites may include the home office, any branch office, or other locations of the Contractor. The Contractor must maintain its records and accounts in such a way as to facilitate the audit and examination and assure that Subcontractors also maintain records that are auditable. Access must be available at all reasonable times not limited to the required retention period but as long as records are retained, and at no additional cost to ESD.

19.1.3. In accordance with the Survival clause, this section, Records and Audits, shall survive the expiration or termination of this Contract.

19.2. ADVANCE PAYMENTS PROHIBITED

No payment in advance or in anticipation of services or supplies to be provided by this Contract shall be made by ESD. In cost reimbursement contracts, the Contractor shall be entitled only to reimbursement for expenses incurred during the contract period for work accomplished as provided elsewhere in this Contract. In fixed unit price contracts, the Contractor shall be entitled only to payment for work accomplished during the contract period and in accordance with the terms of this Contract.

19.3. ASSIGNMENT

The work to be provided under this Contract, and any claim arising thereunder, is not assignable or delegable by either party in whole or in part, without the express prior written consent of the other party, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

19.4. ASSURANCES

19.4.1. ESD and the Contractor agree that all activity pursuant to this Contract will be in accordance with all applicable current or future federal, state or local laws, rules and regulations.

19.5. ATTORNEY FEES AND COSTS

19.5.1. If any litigation is brought to enforce this Contract or any litigation arises out of any contract term, clause or provision, each party shall be responsible for its own expenses, costs and attorney fees.

19.6. CHANGES AND AMENDMENTS

19.6.1. Either party may request changes to the terms of this Contract. Such changes, including any increase or decrease in the amount of payment or reimbursement, which are mutually agreed upon by the Parties, will only be valid when in writing and must be signed by the authorized representatives of the parties.

19.6.2. If the changes requested by either party substantially changes the scope of work of the original contract or substantially increases the value of the original contract ESD may be required to purchase the additional goods and/or services through a new competitive solicitation (RCW 39.26.120[2]). However, in such circumstances, no new competitive solicitation shall be required if an exception to competitive solicitation applies (RCW 39.26.125).

19.7. CONFLICT OF INTEREST

19.7.1. Notwithstanding any determination by the Executive Ethics Board or other tribunal, ESD may, in its sole discretion, by written notice to the Contractor, terminate this Contract if it is found after due notice and examination by ESD that there is a violation of the Ethics in Public Service Act, RCW 42.52, or any similar statute involving the Contractor in the procurement of, or performance under, this Contract.

19.7.2. In the event this Contract is terminated as provided above, ESD shall be entitled to pursue the same remedies against the Contractor as it could pursue in the event of a breach of this Contract by the Contractor. The rights and remedies of ESD provided for in this clause shall not be exclusive and are in addition to any other rights and remedies provided by law. The existence of facts upon which ESD makes any determination under this clause may be reviewed as provided in the DISPUTES clause of this Contract.

19.8. COSTS19.8.1. Disallowed Costs

The Contractor is responsible for any audit exceptions or disallowed costs incurred by its own organization or that of its Subcontractors.

19.8.2. Duplication of Billed Costs

The Contractor shall not bill ESD for costs if the Contractor is being paid by another source for those same costs.

19.9. COVENANT AGAINST CONTINGENT FEES

19.9.1. The Contractor warrants that no person or selling agent has been employed or retained to solicit or secure this Contract upon an agreement or understanding for a commission, percentage, brokerage, or contingent fee. This does not include bona fide employees or bona fide established agents maintained by the Contractor for the purpose of securing business that neither exerts nor proposes to exert improper influence to solicit or obtain government contracts nor holds out as being able to obtain any government contract or contracts through improper influence.

19.9.2. ESD shall have the right, in the event of breach of this clause by the Contractor, to annul this Contract without liability or, by its sole discretion, to deduct from the contract price or consideration or otherwise recover by other means the full amount of such commission, percentage, brokerage or contingent fees. In no event shall ESD be liable for any commission, percentage, brokerage, or contingent fees.

19.10. DEBARMENT AND SUSPENSION

The Contractor has provided, in Exhibit B to this Agreement, its certification that it is in compliance with, and shall not contract with, individuals or organizations which are debarred, suspended, or otherwise excluded from or ineligible from participation in Federal Assistance Programs under Executive Order 12549, and "Debarment and Suspension, codified at 29 CFR part 98.

19.11. DISPUTES

- 19.11.1. Except as otherwise provided in this Contract, when a dispute arises between the parties it should be resolved at the lowest administrative level possible and be escalated to the project owners. If it cannot be resolved by direct negotiation, the parties agree to participate in non-binding mediation in good faith. The mediator shall be chosen by agreement of the parties. If the parties cannot agree on a mediator, the parties shall use a mediation service that selects the mediator for the parties. Nothing in this Contract shall be construed to limit the parties' choice of a mutually acceptable alternative resolution method such as a dispute hearing, a Dispute Resolution Board, or arbitration.
- 19.11.2. In accordance with the Survival clause, this section, Disputes, shall survive the expiration or termination of this Contract.

19.12. FORCE MAJEURE

- 19.12.1. Except for payment of sums due, neither party shall be liable to the other or deemed in default under this Contract if and to the extent that such party's performance of this Contract is prevented by reason of force majeure.
- 19.12.2. Either party shall have the right to suspend this Contract without liability if delayed by reason of Force Majeure, said party shall provide written notification to the other party. The notification shall provide evidence of the force majeure and commercially reasonable efforts to mitigate the effects to the satisfaction of the other party. Such delay shall cease as soon as practicable and written notice of the same shall be provided. The time of completion shall be extended by contract modification for the period of delay or inability to perform due to such occurrences.
- 19.12.3. Either party shall have the right to terminate this Contract without liability if for reason of Force Majeure, said party shall provide written notice to the other party. The notification shall provide evidence of Force Majeure.
- 19.12.4. Despite Force Majeure parties maintain their rights under this Contract to Terminate for Convenience.

19.13. INDEMNIFICATION

- 19.13.1. To the fullest extent permitted by law, Contractor shall indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the State of Washington, ESD, and all officials, agents, and employees of the State, from and against all claims for injuries or death arising out of or resulting from the performance of this Contract. Contractor's obligation to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless includes any claim by Contractor's agents, employees, representatives, or any Subcontractor, or its employees.
- 19.13.2. Contractor shall defend, indemnify, and save ESD harmless from and against any claims, including reasonable attorneys' fees resulting from such claims, by third parties for any or all injuries to persons or damage to property of such third parties to the extent caused by the intentional, willful or negligent acts or omissions of Contractor, its officers, employees, or agents, or Subcontractors, their officers, employees, or agents.

For all obligations of Contractor to defend the ESD as described in the Contract, ESD shall promptly give Contractor notice of such claim or action and shall cooperate in the defense of such claims at Contractor's expense. ESD agrees to use its best efforts to encourage the Office of the Attorney General of Washington to grant Contractor sole control of the defense and all related settlement negotiations. However, if principles of governmental or public law are involved, the State may participate in the defense of any such action, but no costs or expenses shall be incurred for the account of Contractor without Contractor's written consent.

19.13.3. In accordance with the Survival clause, this section, Indemnification, shall survive the expiration or termination of this Contract.

19.14. INDEPENDENT CAPACITY OF CONTRACTOR

The parties intend that an independent contractor relationship will be created by this Contract. The Contractor and their employees or agents performing under this Contract are not employees or agents of ESD. The Contractor will not hold himself/herself out as, nor claim to be an officer or employee of, ESD or of the State of Washington by reason hereof, nor will the Contractor make any claim of right, privilege or benefit which would accrue to such employee under law.

19.15. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

19.15.1. This Contract shall be construed and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the State of Washington and the venue of any action brought hereunder shall be in the Superior Court for Thurston County. All parties agree to the exclusive jurisdiction of such court and waive any right to challenge jurisdiction or venue.

19.16. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

19.16.1. The parties agree that neither Contractor nor ESD shall be liable to each other, regardless of the form of action, for consequential, incidental, indirect, or special damages except any claim related to bodily injury or death; a breach of confidentiality or cyber security; or a claim or demand based on patent, copyright, or other intellectual property right infringement.

19.16.2. Neither party shall be liable to the other party unless damage is proximately caused by such party's respective fault or negligence. Neither the Contractor nor ESD shall be liable for damages arising from causes beyond the reasonable control and without the fault or negligence of the party. Such causes may include, but are not restricted to, acts of God or acts of a governmental body other than the ESD acting in either its sovereign or contractual capacity.

19.16.3. In no event shall Contractor's aggregate liability to ESD under this Contract, regardless of the form of action, whether in Contract, tort, negligence, strict liability or otherwise for any claim related to or arising under this Contract, exceed $10 million.

19.16.4. In accordance with the Survival clause, this section, Limitation of Liability, shall survive the expiration or termination of this Contract.

19.17. SEVERABILITY

The provisions of this Contract are intended to be severable. If any term or provision is illegal or invalid for any reason whatsoever, such illegality or invalidity shall not affect the validity of the remainder of this Contract.

19.18. SIGNATURE AUTHORITY

19.18.1. This Contract, any alteration, amendment, modification, or waiver of any clause or condition of is not effective or binding unless made in writing and signed by the Commissioner of ESD or any ESD authorized representative that has been given delegated authority prior to signing.

19.18.2. Contractor represents and warrants that the person executing this Contract on its behalf has the full right and authority to fully commit and bind Contractor.

19.19. SITE SECURITY

While on ESD premises, Contractor, its agents, employees, or Subcontractors must conform in all respects with physical, fire, or other security policies or regulations.

19.20. SURVIVAL

Any terms of this Contract that would, by their nature or through the express terms of this Contract, survive the expiration or termination of the Contract shall so survive.

19.21. USE OF NAME PROHIBITED

19.21.1. The Contractor shall not in any way contract on behalf of or in the name of ESD. Nor shall the Contractor release any informational pamphlets, notices, press releases, research reports, or similar public notices concerning this project without obtaining the prior written approval of ESD.

19.22. WAIVER

Waiver of any default or breach shall not be deemed to be a waiver of any subsequent default or breach. Any waiver shall not be construed to be a modification of the terms of this Contract unless stated to be such in writing signed by an authorized representative of ESD.

20. ORDER OF PRECEDENCE

In the event of an inconsistency in this Contract, unless otherwise provided herein, the inconsistency shall be resolved by giving precedence in the following order:

- Applicable Federal and State Statutes and Regulations;
- Those Terms and Conditions as contained in this Contract;
- The Statement of Work, Exhibit A; and
- Any other provisions of this Contract whether incorporated by reference or otherwise.

21. INCORPORATED DOCUMENTS

Each of the documents listed below are incorporated into this Contract:

Exhibit A Statement of Work
